

Student Fee Protection Policy

As a member of MEI, Berlitz Dublin has a student protection policy which ensures that all students can complete their language programme with another school in the unlikely event of the programme ceasing prematurely. This protection covers the period from when a student enrolls on a programme until the time the student has successfully completed the programme and end of programme exams.